FOR SHERIFF.
Many friends of Herpin Riggs Esq., the present Sheriff, announce him as a candidate for re-election.

FRIENDS AND VOTERS.
On Sabbath next, the 29th instant, being the fifth Sunday of the month, services may be expected at the Episcopal Church as usual.

ENTERPRISE SALOON.—This saloon is now, par excellence, the one of Orangeburg. Mr. Wahlers, its enterprising proprietor, has done a great deal for our town in this line. And his assistants can't be equalled for courtesy and urbanity to all men. Lastly, Mr. Wahlers' whiskeys, wines, &c., are the best in town.

DURHAM.—We have been handed a package of the above brand of smoking tobacco which we have tried, and can, without a doubt pronounce it the pure stuff. The above tobacco can be found at the store of Mr. Ezekiel, who has just received a large supply. Go and try it and you'll be convinced of its genuineness.

We met on the Street the other day an old and respectable colored woman at the ripe age of one hundred and eleven years. She is still very active and can walk, or rather pace (as she terms it,) from three to six miles with ease, and says the only trouble she has is rheumatism. The name of the above subject is Dolly Barton, and is well known throughout this County as being a polite and lively old lady, and seems to have very little care on her mind. Dolly says she can thread the finest needle without the aid of glasses. Who can beat her for age?

Mr. Geo. H. Cornelson has just received one of the heaviest stock of goods ever offered in the County of Orangeburg, which was selected with the greatest care and taste, by his head clerk, Mr. J. W. Moseley who is a man of no ordinary experience in merchandizing. Mr. C. has the most polite and accommodating set of assistants that can be found in any store in the State, and we guarantee to all who wish to purchase goods, polite and gentlemanly treatment by these gentlemen, who are Messrs. Williamson, Copes, Danner, Crook and others. Mr. Cornelson is the largest cotton buyer in this Town, which bespeaks for him a large business. His goods cannot be surpassed anywhere in quality and price. See his large advertisement in another column.

In passing down Russell Street the other afternoon we stepped in Mr. Cartmill's store and found him opening some of the most peculiar and beautiful patterns of calicoes we ever saw exhibited in this market, besides other goods of the most fashionable styles, such as ladies dresses, readymade clothing, boots, shoes, hats, and groceries, hardware, tinware and all other goods kept in a first class house. Mr. Cartmill is an old and experienced merchant and consequently knows just what kind of goods will suit the people, and is ever ready to show them to all who favor him with a call, no matter what their condition in life is, in the most courteous and gentlemanly manner, and only deals on the square. To be convinced of the above fact just call on him and you'll find what we have said to be true.

THE VILLAGE CHURCH.—It should not look like a barn or a storehouse. It should be a building, the very sight of which would cause devout feeling in the breast. A well carved cross should point to heaven; massive paneled doors should impress the visitor with the solemnity of the place into which he is entering; stained glass should throw a mystic light athwart the aisles; pulpit, altar ceiling and galleries should be ornamented with figurative mouldings, and the columns that support the galleries, and the balusters that rail them in should be of classic patterns. Any congregation wishing such a church should send their orders for finishing material to Mr. P. P. TOALIE, importer of French stained glass, and manufacturer of and dealer in Doors, Sashes, Blinds &c., No. 20 Hayne street, Charleston, S. C.

LIST OF LETTERS Remaining in the Orangeburg Post Office to September, 25th, 1872.

The Tobacco Antidote.
"WITHOUT MONEY AND WITHOUT PRICE."
We see thousands whose wills are paralyzed by tobacco, who struggle to be free, but give up in despair. They need an antidote for an insatiable appetite.

To such as are utterly stupefied by the drug, and such as revel in saliva and smoke—glorying in their shame—we make no appeal; but to such as "groan, being in bondage," longing to be free, we say, "Here is our antidote, friend. Try it. We ask nothing for it."

1. Make the most of your will. Drop tobacco, and resolve never to use it again in any form.
2. Go to an apothecary and buy ten cents' worth of gentian root, coarsely ground.
3. Take as much of it after each meal, or oftener, as amounts to a common quid of "fine cut" or "cavendish."
4. Chew it well, and swallow all the saliva.
5. Continue this a few weeks, and you will come off conqueror. Then thank God for it.

REASONS.
1. Gentian root is a tonic, bitter in taste, and will do much to neutralize and allay your taste for tobacco.
2. Gentian is a nerve. It will brace up your relaxed nerves, and save you from the "awful goodness" under which you agonize.
3. Gentian, for a short time, is an innocent substitute for the quid or pipe. It employs the mouth, beguiles the attention, and gives a helping hand to a drowning man.

The Governor has commuted the sentence of Simon Black, of Lexington County, from hanging to imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for life. Black was to have been hanged on the 20 instant being one of the Hatmon, Lexington County, murderers. His extreme youth has governed the exercise of Executive clemency in this case.

Roll on! great Pills of Ayer, roll on!
Through miles embowed roll!
Roll on!
Through those whose livers chafe the soul!
Through those whose feeble stomachs fail!
Through messengers waxen pale!
Through all who live in sorer and ail!
Ever roll on!
Roll over the prairies of the nation—
For the sick and ill of every station!
Roll down the Andes—toward mountains!
Roll over Africa's golden fountains!
Through India and the Ocherones!
Through distant isles of Japanese!
Wherever dwells a sinking heart!
Roll on, to do your mighty part,
Ayer's Pills, roll on.—Putnam for Out.

As a remedy for Bronchial Affections and Chronic diseases of the Lungs, nothing ever before discovered equals Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

THE CULTURE OF THE HAIR.—Just as surely as a soil infested with Canadian thistles can be made to produce fine crops of golden grain, the scalp now sparsely covered with harsh, dry, unmanageable hair can be made prolific of silken tresses. All that is necessary to effect the change in either case is the right kind of fertilizer. Leaving the agricultural chemists to determine how the barren land shall be made fruitful, we positively assert that Lyon's Kathairon is unequalled as a fertilizer and beautifier of the hair. Twenty-five years of success is the basis of this unqualified statement. During that time it has been used by many millions of both sexes, and the first instance in which it has failed to fulfill the expectations of a rational purchaser has yet to be discovered. It will not cause hair to grow on a varnished head; but wherever the roots of the hair fibers remain undisturbed it will cause them to put forth new shoots, and in all cases the hair has become thin it will increase its volume.

THE KU KLUX.
Raid through our quiet village sometime ago, did not engender as much
EXCITEMENT
As did the intelligence that Mr. HERMAN WAHLERS DESIGNED opening a FIRST CLASS DRINKING SALOON
IN OUR MIDST.
And when
THE FACT
Was REALIZED,
The confusion of the people was almost equivalent to
THAT
Caused to the builders of the tower of Babel when their language was confused.
SODA, GIN, WHISKEY, AND BRANDY COCKTAILS,
Such as we had never seen before—WINES, CHAMPAGNES, and SEGARS the like of which were as rare as a white crow, or ice in June. ALE and LAGER, that would make the leanest man in the world fat, are only a part of MR. WAHLERS COLLECTION that Caused so much Fright to us all. To this Day
There are men whose
LIFE IS IN A DOUBTFUL CONDITION.
This was caused by his manifesto, requesting
LOAFERS
To keep away on pain of a heavy
PENALTY.
To this day there are others who had lost their power to be genial—whose nerves were rendered unsteady by the use of bad liquors, and whose countenances bore a downcast sheepish look—on this day the advertiser says there are men like these, who have been happy, infinitely so since inhibiting once at MR. W'S SALOON. There fore the exhortation.
COME ALL YE
That thirst for healthy beverages, the depressed, the aged—and the poisoned
AND RECEIVE THE BALM
That can only be had at the ENTERPRISE SALOON.
You'll Find No
LOAFERS, NO HANGERS
AROUND, NO
Men whose eyes are redened with
MIXTURES OF STRYCHNINE & CREOSOTE,
You'll find a genial healthy set of TEMPERANCE LOOKING MEN, and the greatest desire on the part of the PROPRIETOR is to please the wants of his customers.
Give me a trial at the STAND formerly occupied by JOHN PATTERSON, dec'd opposite Messrs Bull Scovill and Pike.
